JOHN 13-17

A dimly lit room with a large metal basin on a wooden table, a white cloth draped over it, and a small lamp in the background.

Today's Passage: John 15:18-16:4

⁴ But I have said these things to you, that when their hour comes you may remember that I told them to you. “I did not say these things to you from the beginning, because I was with you. ⁵ But now I am going to him who sent me, and none of you asks me, ‘Where are you going?’ ⁶ But because I have said these things to you, sorrow has filled your heart.

⁷ Nevertheless, I tell you the truth: it is to your advantage that I go away, for if I do not go away, the Helper will not come to you. But if I go, I will send him to you. ⁸ And when he comes, he will convict the world concerning sin and righteousness and judgment:

⁹ concerning sin, because they do not believe in me;

¹¹ concerning judgment, because the ruler of this world is judged.

¹¹ concerning judgment, because the ruler of this world is judged.

Don't assume Jesus is talking about someone else.

A dimly lit room with a wooden table. In the foreground, there is a large, shallow, dark-colored bowl. A light-colored, textured cloth is draped over the right side of the bowl. In the background, a small, lit candle is visible on a shelf or table, casting a warm glow. The overall atmosphere is quiet and contemplative.

Do we allow the Spirit to correct us when our understanding of sin, righteousness, and judgment doesn't align with Jesus?
